

Gurit grants a Sprint Technology and Product License to Hexcel

Wattwil, January January 25, 2009. Gurit (SIX Swiss Exchange: GUR) announced today that it has granted a non-exclusive license for its patented Sprint technology and products to Hexcel Corporation.

Gurit, a leading developer and manufacturer of high-end composite materials and technologies, has granted Hexcel a license to produce composite material under its Sprint technology and product patents on a non-exclusive basis. This agreement covers both the future use under the license agreement against payment of a license fee and settlement of a high single digit million amount of Swiss Francs for the past.
